

■ Listening Task - True or False: Our Class Rules

Listening Test Competency
Interacting With Others	Comprehending Instructions	Getting Things Done	Comprehending Information
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

Read the statements and decide whether each statement is true or false.
Write T for true or F for false next to each statement.

Statements	T or F
1) According to the audio, once our lesson begins, you should give the teacher your full attention.
2) According to the audio, you need to increase the background noise so you can fully hear the lesson.
3) According to the audio, it is very important that you participate and speak out loud during the lesson to improve your speaking skills.
4) According to the audio, you should have school supplies such as a pencil or a notebook beside you during the lesson so you can practice your writing skills.
5) According to the audio, not completing activities for the lesson that you are learning will help improve your English language skills
6) According to the audio, you should not take breaks during the lesson. Instead, you should sit by the computer and complete the lesson and all the activities at once.
7) According to the audio, you should look up words that you do not know in the dictionary because it will help you build your English vocabulary.
8) According to the audio, you will get to complete 4 tests for each topic. The tests will be listening, speaking, reading and writing tests.
9) According to the audio, after you have completed a test, you will get to watch a video where the teacher will share with you the answers to the test.
10) According to the audio, try to have fun and enjoy learning English with NETOL.

Pass: Yes / No

Beginning / Developing / Complete

/10

(7 and above is a pass)